DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1, 2, 5, and 16 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The word "type" renders the claims indefinite. Suggest the word 'type' be deleted to overcome this rejection.

With regard to claim 1, the HT is located behind a reverser mechanism, however, Applicant has not establish a point of reference indicating forward/backward direction and therefore renders the claim indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 2, and 14-16 (as best understood) are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kitasaka (JP2001-55161).

Kitasaka discloses a crawler tractor comprising a hydrostatic transmission for steering to rotate a machine body, wherein the hydrostatic transmission for steering is connected to a driving system at a position located behind a reverser mechanism for switching a forward movement or a rearward movement of the machine body.

With regard to claims 2 and 14-16 discloses all of the claimed limitations.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 3-13 and 17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
